Jomon, Muromachi, Edo and late Tokugawa periods

A 180 km – cycling trip to enjoy history and culture

The southern Hokkaido area, which long prospered as a trading base, is a rare area in Hokkaido where you can experience the long history and culture from the Paleolithic period to the Muromachi, Edo, and late Tokugawa periods/the Meiji era. Enjoy an exhilarating cycling trip that satisfies intellectual curiosity along a route with fewer hills that goes through both coastal and inland areas.

A Kokomochi (rice cake)

From 130 yen

Originates from a Kikonai legend about a devoted (koko in Japanese) son

To support his blind father and two sickly brothers, half-blind Tomokichi Kawamata went as far as Shimamaki and Yoichi to sell thin strips of wood. He always had a smile on his face despite being poor, so he earned a reputation as a devoted son and was even commended by the Hokkaido Development Commissioner. In memory of this devoted son from a local legend, Kokomochi has been produced by a local confectioner since its foundation in 1934. This soy-flavored ubeshi rice cake contains walnuts.

Kikonai no Bo Kokomochi Honpo Suehiroan

- Address: Honcho 237, Kikonai
- Hours: 9:00 – 18:00
- Closed: New Year's Day
- Contact: 01392-2-2069

D Oppai Manju (lit. boob bun)

230 yen (2 pieces)

Famous sweet related to a local legendary tree

The giant cedar tree in Shiriuchi Park has breast-shaped bumps near its base and is called Ubasugi (lit. nanny cedar) because a woman who didn't have breast milk began producing milk after worshipping the tree. Oppai Manju, which was inspired by the tree, are bite-size buns filled with white bean jam and coated with white chocolate.

E Shiriuchi Onsen

Shiriuchi

The oldest hot spring in Hokkaido

This hot spring, which opened in 1247 in the Kamakura period, has a history going back 800 years. A giant dome made of petrified hot-spring mineral deposits and layers of mineral deposits on the floor of the bathtub and bathroom convey the length of its history. The spring's sodium-chloride/bicarbonate water is known for its beautifying properties.

- Address: Yunosato 287, Shiriuchi
- Accommodation: from 8,790 yen
- Day-visit hot spring: adults: 460 yen; children: 330 yen; infants: 220 yen
- Hours: bathing: 7:00 – 21:00
- Closed: no holidays
- Contact: 01392-6-2341

B Omonai Shrine (Observatory)

Approach to the sea

Climb over 200 steps to delight in scenic views of the prefectural road that goes straight to the sea beyond the torii gate. There is also a paved road leading to the observatory where you can attempt a steep slope close to a grade of 20%.

- Address: Omonai, Shiriuchi
- Closed: Winter
- Contact: Shiriuchi Tourism Promotion Organization (01392-6-7510)

C Oyster rice

From 680 yen
(excluding tax)

Springy and milky!

Shiriuchi's oysters are cultured in the open sea, which is rare in Japan. Since the oysters are tossed about by the rough waves of the Tsugaru Strait, they don't have a muddy odor, are firm and don't easily shrink when heated. As a result, they receive a high rating. Oyster rice is a luxurious dish made by simmering springy oysters in a sweet sauce and putting them on rice.

Kakigoya Shiriuchi Banya

- Address: Omonai 10-15, Shiriuchi
- Hours: Sun. – Thu.: 11:00 – 16:00; Fri., Sat.: 11:00 – 14:00, 15:00 – 20:00

Ino Tadataka completed the first map of Japan

based on detailed surveying. The survey of Hokkaido started in Fukushima's Yoshioka area. The park was constructed in 2018 to commemorate the 200th anniversary of Ino Tadataka's death.

- Address: Toyohama 68-3, Fukushima
- Contact: Industry Section, Town of Fukushima (0139-47-3004)
(weekdays: 8:30 – 17:00)

Cape Shirakami

Must-see for farthest-points-of Japan lovers

Cape Shirakami is the southernmost cape in Hokkaido. It's only 19.2 km from Cape Tappi over the sea. It looks as if you could touch the cape across the way if you reach out your hand. Cape Shirakami is a well-known stopover for migratory birds.

● Address: Shirakami, Matsumae, Matsumae-gun

Michi-no-Eki Kaminokuni Monju Restaurant

What is this ferocious fish with a name derived from “tegui (hand-biting)”?

Flounder is locally referred to as “tekkui” because it is ferocious and bites the hands of fishermen. Enjoy the distinctive crunchy texture and firm white meat, which can be eaten raw (bowl of rice topped with sashimi) or deep fried (bowl of rice topped with tempura).

● Address: Haraura 3, Kaminokuni
 ● Hours (restaurant): 11:00 – 15:00 (all year round)

Old Nakamura Residence

A merchant family residence conveying the heydays of herring fishing

Inishie Kaido Street is lined with historical buildings that convey the prosperity of Esashi, which is said to have flourished more than Edo thanks to the herring fishing trade. The Old Nakamura Residence, a National Important Cultural Property, symbolizes its prosperity. It is a two-story gabled building made entirely of hinoki asunaro (hiba, a kind of cypress) on a base of Echizen stones, exemplifying a typical structure of wholesaler architecture at the time.

● Address: Nakaura-cho 22, Esashi
 ● Admission fee: adults: 300 yen, elementary, junior high and high school students: 100 yen

Mt. Iou Katsuyama Castle Guidance Facility

The northern king lived on this mountain during the Muromachi period

Katsuyama Castle, the residence of Takeda Nobuhiro, who built the foundation of the Matsumae Domain, was built on Mt. Iou. It was a mountain where the “king of Hokkaido,” which was called Ezogashima at the time, lived. The guidance facility exhibits a 1/200 reconstruction model of Katsuyama Castle and excavated articles.

● Address: Katsuyama 427, Kaminokuni
 ● Hours: 10:00 – 16:00
 ● Closed: mid-Nov. – early Apr.: Mon. (the following day if Monday is a national holiday), the day following a national holiday
 ● Admission fee: adults: 200 yen; elementary school students: 100 yen (20% discount for groups)
 ● Contact: 0139-55-2400

Gokatteya Yokan (sweet bean jelly)

From 206 yen

A traditional taste also popular with cyclists

In the Edo period, woodcutters called gokattekumi successfully grew beans for the first time in Hokkaido. The beans were used to make sweets that were presented to the lord, who was very pleased. This was the origin of Gokatteya Yokan, the production of which began in 1870 based on the confectioner's long tradition and efforts. It has been made using the same method ever since. This yokan is in a cylindrical container, which is designed to keep your hands clean, is ideal as an energy supplement during cycling.

Gokatteya Honpo

● Address: Honcho 38, Esashi ● Hours: 8:00 – 19:00 (Sun.: 8:00 – 18:30)
 ● Closed: only New Year's Day ● Contact: 0139-52-0022

History of symbiosis with Ainu culture

Esashi Oiwake is a song of life that was conveyed by the watermen of the Kitamae ship and polished in the climate of Esashi. Women gracefully dance along to the song, and Ainu patterns are applied to the costumes for the Esashi Oiwake dance. It is not known why Ainu patterns are used, but you can see the close relationship between Esashi and Ainu culture.

● Address: Nakauta-cho 193-3, Esashi
 ● Hours: 9:00 – 17:00
 ● Closed: Apr. – Oct.: no holidays; Nov. – Mar.: Mon. (the following day if Monday is a national holiday), year-end and New Year holidays

O Kaiyomaru Memorial Museum

Life-size model of the strongest warship in the late Tokugawa period

Kaiyo Maru is an enormous battleship stranded and sunk off Esashi, although it had been expected to be used as a trump card for the former Shogunate forces in the Boshin War. The ship, which has been precisely reproduced based on design drawings stored in the Netherlands, serves as a museum where visitors can not only view excavated relics and dioramas showing events at the time but also experience maneuvering simulations.

● Address: Ubagami-cho 1-10, Esashi, Hiyama-gun ● Hours: 9:00 – 17:00
 ● Closed: Mon. (the following day if Monday is a national holiday) (Nov. – Mar.); Dec. 31 – Jan. 5
